SUMMARY: The Transition Facilitator is responsible for carrying out the daily routines of an independent living program for males, ages 17-24, who are re-entering the community from a structured residential setting and for providing case management services to assigned youth. The position is responsible for assessing Independent Living Skills Levels for all clients entering the program, as well as coordinating the delivery of this work, to include working with the team to identify the appropriate packet work and to assist the client in achieving mastery of independent skills.

This position is also responsible skill development and crisis intervention for up to 7 clients at any given time. It will monitor and follow through with clients regarding their case plans, in part through the delegation of tasks to Mentors. This could include crisis management while still covering the floor and attending to the safety of other clients as well as tracking community clients all at the same time.

QUALIFICATIONS: Any combination of education, experience and training that demonstrates the ability to perform the duties of the position is qualifying.

- Bachelor's degree in mental health, social work, juvenile justice, or closely allied field, and two years' experience working with at risk youth is required
- Experience working in a residential setting or with clients served by Oregon Youth Authority required.
- Preference may be extended to current employees of Janus Youth Programs, Inc.

REQUIRED ABILITIES:

- Must value working in a multicultural/diverse environment.
- Ability to work effectively and act on the agenda of the program.
- Ability to problem solve, exercise independent judgment within program guidelines, and respond to crisis situations.

- Ability to exercise tact, discretion, and judgment in working with a variety of people.
- Ability to effectively monitor safety and demonstrate group management skills and effectively de-escalate potentially chaotic or volatile situations.
- Ability to remain calm and emotionally available in an environment serving at-risk and troubled adolescents.
- Ability to regularly attend scheduled shift, be punctual for scheduled shift and meetings, and be in a condition suitable for assuming responsibilities of the position.
- Ability to communicate effectively orally and in writing with a wide range of individuals, including clients, management, parole officers, and community partners.
- Ability to climb at least 2 flights of stairs.
- Ability to provide visual and auditory supervision of clients.
- Ability to escort and supervise clients in the community which may require standing and walking up to an hour at one time.
- Ability to accurately read, record, interpret and convey information accurately; including outcome of client meetings and planning sessions, incident reports, communication logs, etc.
- Ability to direct clients to resource groups in the community for assistance.
- Ability to problem solve while keeping in mind the best interest and welfare of the client.
- Ability to stay awake and alert throughout assigned shift.
- Manual/Physical dexterity allowing for performance of routine office and household functions (i.e., phone use, filing, faxing, copying, computer use, teaching chores, house cleaning, etc.).
- Ability to accurately type/keyboard 40-45 words per minute.
- Ability to effectively utilize computer software, including Word, Excel, and PowerPoint.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS:

- Personal transportation allowing for travel within the Portland metropolitan area and transport of clients is preferred. If driving a personal vehicle for work must have a valid driver's license for state of residency, have personal auto liability coverage ($100,000/$300,000 levels strongly recommended), and have a driving record that permits coverage under the corporate auto liability policy. All employees who drive for work purposes, whether driving a personal or Janus vehicle, must complete the agency's driving approval process before driving for work
- Must pass criminal history background check.
- Must have and maintain standard First-Aid/CPR certification
- Bloodborne Pathogen training required and provided on first day of employment and annually thereafter.
- Must complete mandatory reporting training within the first 30 days of employment and annually thereafter.

WORKING CONDITIONS:

- May involve exposure to communicable diseases, including a variety of illnesses and infections such as the common cold, TB, Hepatitis, flu, meningitis, and HIV.
- May involve exposure to upset, angry, severely traumatized or emotionally disturbed youth and/or families.
- May involve time in excess of routine schedule, including evening and/or weekend hours.
- May require monitoring and providing services at locations other than program site (i.e., clients' employer, clients' apartments, etc.) and may, therefore, be exposed to environments not under agency control (i.e., second-hand smoke, varying hygiene practices, etc.).
