SUMMARY: The Skills Trainer is responsible for providing ongoing supervision and care for male adolescents. This position assists in the treatment and supervision of youth in the custody of the Department of Human Services through the provision of individual and group skills training, recording daily observations, targeting treatment goals, and by maintaining a structured living environment in accordance with program expectations. The position is responsible for assisting in the day-to-day operation of a residential facility. The position provides quality youth care and close, intensive supervision of male adolescent clients.

QUALIFICATIONS: Any combination of education, experience and training that demonstrates the ability to perform the duties of the position is qualifying. This would typically include:

- Bachelor's degree OR equivalent education, experience and/or training which is defined, at a minimum, as one year work experience AND two years education, training, or additional work experience, all in the care and rehabilitation of youth. (Note: No less than 50 percent of the Skills Trainers shall have a Bachelor's Degree.)
- Preference may be extended to current employees of Janus Youth Programs, Inc.

REQUIRED ABILITIES:

- Value working in a multi-cultural/diverse environment.
- Ability to work effectively within: culturally diverse populations; team dependent models; crisis management; strength-based theoretical orientation; adolescent development; and family reunification. Ability to work effectively may be demonstrated through academic experience, job experience, references, and interview responses.

- Ability to communicate effectively orally and in writing with a broad variety of people, including clients, staff, supervisors and management.
- Able to climb at least one flight of stairs.
- Able to perform meal preparation and perform or supervise routine household cleaning.
- Able to provide visual and auditory supervision of residential clients.
- Able to accurately read, record and interpret information and complete written documentation that meets contract and program guidelines.
- Able to remain calm and emotionally available in an environment serving youth who require a high level of supervision and redirection from staff.
- Ability to work effectively in a team-dependent environment and to act on the agenda of the program.
- Ability to exercise tact, discretion and judgment in working with a variety of people.
- Ability to maintain appropriate professional boundaries in working with others and in handling confidential information.
- Ability to effectively monitor safety and demonstrate group management skills and effectively deescalate potentially chaotic or volatile situations.
- Ability to regularly attend scheduled shift, be punctual for scheduled shift and meetings, and be in a condition suitable for assuming responsibilities of position.
- Ability to stay awake and alert throughout assigned shift.
- Manual/physical dexterity allowing for performance of routine office and household tasks such as phone use, copying, filing, computer use, writing, bending, reaching, food preparation, etc.
- Able to occasionally lift and carry supplies and groceries that could weigh 20# or more.
