SUMMARY: Skills trainers provide supervision and monitoring of clients and facility and assist in the treatment and supervision of youth in the custody of the Department of Human Services through the provision of individual and group skills training, recording daily observations, targeting treatment goals, and by maintaining a structured living environment in accordance with program expectations. The position is responsible for assisting in the overnight operations and security of a residential facility serving male adolescents. The position provides quality youth care and sight/sound supervision of clients.

QUALIFICATIONS: Any combination of education, experience and training that demonstrates the ability to perform the duties of the position is qualifying. This would typically include:

- Bachelor's degree in a related field or two years of experience is preferred.
- Must value working in a multicultural/diverse environment.
- Preference may be extended to current employees of Janus Youth Programs, Inc.

REQUIRED ABILITIES:

- Value working in a multi-cultural/diverse environment.
- Ability to work effectively within: culturally diverse populations; team dependent models; crisis management; strength-based theoretical orientation; adolescent development; and family reunification. Ability to work effectively may be demonstrated through academic experience, job experience, references, and interview responses.
- Able to climb at least one flight of stairs.
- Able to perform meal preparation and perform or supervise routine household cleaning.

- Able to provide visual and auditory supervision of residential clients.
- Able to accurately read, record and interpret information.
- Able to remain calm and emotionally available in an environment serving severely disturbed youth.
- Ability to work effectively in a team-dependent environment and to act on the agenda of the program.
- Ability to exercise tact, discretion and judgment in working with a variety of people.
- Ability to maintain appropriate professional boundaries in working with others and in handling confidential information.
- Ability to effectively monitor safety and demonstrate group management skills and effectively deescalate potentially chaotic or volatile situations.
- Ability to regularly attend scheduled shift, be punctual for scheduled shift and meetings, and be in a condition suitable for assuming responsibilities of position.
- Ability to stay awake and alert throughout assigned shift.
- Manual/physical dexterity allowing for performance of routine office and household tasks such as phone use, copying, filing, computer use, writing, bending, reaching, food preparation, etc.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS:

- Driving is preferred; a personal vehicle for travel and/or transport clients preferred. Driving is not required. All employees who drive for work purposes must have and maintain a valid driver's license for state of residency, have a driving record that permits coverage under the corporate auto liability policy, and complete the agency's driving approval process before driving for work. If driving a personal vehicle for work purposes drivers must also have personal auto liability coverage ($100,000/$300,000 levels strongly recommended). Employees are not to drive for work purposes until they have received written authorization to do so.
